

KDFN will proceed with a by-election for one councillor position

Attention KDFN citizens,

The KDFN Council wishes to advise, effective immediately, Councillor Rosemary Waugh-Wilson has resigned her position due to health. The Council would like to extend their thanks for her service and wishes her a speedy recovery.

In accordance with the KDFN Election Act:

- 9. (1) A date for a by-election shall be set by the Council within 45 days of the office of chief or a councillor becoming vacant pursuant to paragraph 25(4)(b) of the constitution.

- (2) If the office of chief or a councillor becomes vacant within eight months before the date of a regular election, that office shall remain vacant until the regularly held election pursuant to subsection 25(5) of the constitution.

- (3) A by-election shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this Act

Given approximately 10 months remains to the next regular election, Council will proceed with a by-election for one councillor position. More information on the by-election will be provided in the coming days. Please stay tuned.

Once again, we wish Councillor Waugh-Wilson well.

-Kwanlin Dün First Nation Council

