LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT FOR STUDENTS

Kwanlin Dün First Nation Education offers comprehensive support to students and their families through the KDFN Learning and Development Team. This dedicated team provides a range of services tailored to meet each student's unique needs, including educational assessments, therapeutic interventions, and individualized support plans. These supports may encompass speech therapy, specialized learning strategies, and access to assistive materials to enhance the learning experience and development of school age KDFN Citizens. All services are customized based on the specific requirements of each student to ensure they receive the best possible support for their educational success.

For more information and access to the supports from the Learning and Development Team, please email learning.development@kdfn.net or contact the KDFN Education Support Coordinator at the students' school for support to complete a referral form.
