Expression of Interest

Kwanlin Dün First Nation (KDFN) is seeking a Curriculum and workshop developer to create a KDFN cultural inclusivity, anti-racism and bias training course that will be delivered to contractors and individuals working on KDFN traditional territory.

Must be able to:

- Research, develop and create curriculum, course content, outline and materials
- Organize and work alongside a focus group
- Experience with the challenges impacting employment for indigenous people and experience teaching or developing anti-racism training

Private collaborative mentoring opportunities may be available for KDFN individuals with the ability to lead the project but needing some guidance along the way.

Project to be completed by December 15, 2024.

Deadline to apply is June 26, 2023.
