

Shirley Smith for Council Member

Kwanlin Dün First Nation
Election 2026

Advanced Poll: March 4
Election Day: March 18

Experience. Care. Community Voice.

About Shirley

Shirley is an Elder in Residence at the Kwanlin
Dün Cultural Centre.

She leads the weekly Sew & Tell group, bringing people together through culture and community.

She believes strong committees, strong voices, and strong relationships build a stronger Nation.

Shirley's Priorities

Listening to Citizens

- More public input in decisions
- Open communication and transparency
- Strong role for the Elder Council

Health and Family Supports

- Expanded health services
- 24-hour Elder support when needed
- More help with food and finances

Housing and Community Wellbeing

- More housing support based on individual needs
- Support for all citizens, including those in custody

Training and Opportunity

- More trades and job training
- Youth and Elder learning together
- Technology support for Elders

Community Connection

- More gatherings
- Strong cultural programs
- Careful and fair use of resources

Experience

- Kwanlin Dün Councillor (two terms in the 1980s)
- Helped with the relocation to McIntyre
- Worked with Yukon Learn tutoring services
- Helped start the House of Learning
- Created Culture Camp at Elijah Smith School
- Cultural Education Liaison for 21 years

“I am ready to continue serving our community.”

-Shirley Smith

Consider Voting Shirley Smith

Advanced Poll: March 4, 2026

Election Day: March 18, 2026

Shirley is committed to:

- Putting citizens first
- Supporting families and Elders
- Creating opportunities for all ages
- Working together for a strong future

“I look forward to hearing what matters to you.”

Call Shirley: 867-335-5870

Please support Shirley
Smith for Council.