

WHO I AM

My Tlingit name is Yékèsh and I was born into the Kookitaan clan.

I am a mother of five children and eleven grandchildren.

I was raised to be deeply rooted in our cultural ways of being on the land, hunting, fishing, berry picking and medicine harvesting.

I enjoy spending time with my family and friends, sewing, and learning to speak Tlingit.

I completed Office Procedures at Yukon University, many administrative support classes, UBC- Indigenous Business Management.

Worked for First Nation Government my whole adult life, as an administrative assistant in many different departments. I own and operate Grandma Treesaw's Yukon Bannock Catering Services Inc.

For Kwanlin Dun First Nation Councilor

LANGUAGE & CULTURE:

Is our identity to whom and where we belong and how to preserve and protect this essential part of our lives is vital to us and our future generations.

EDUCATION:

Enhances our lives to promote to our children how important this is as our circle of knowledge to preserve our language, culture and all aspects of our journey in life.

Safety, wellbeing, housing, land stewardship also provides us with the wealth of community well being and knowledge of respect to our community and us as citizens. This is our blanket to know we can attain our education, language & culture. Gunalchish'
